Unless otherwise required by the Act, all other business transacted at an Annual General Meeting and all business transacted at any other general meeting shall be deemed ordinary. The Auditor shall be entitled to attend and be heard on any part of the business of any general meeting which concerns them as Auditor.

10.2. The quorum for a general meeting shall be one-tenth in number of the Members for the time being, or the closest whole number above that fraction, at the time the meeting is held, present in person or by duly appointed Representative and entitled to vote.

10.3. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting except the election of a chair and the adjournment of the meeting, unless the requisite quorum is present at the commencement of business or within 15 minutes after the appointed time for the meeting.

10.4. The Chair and in their absence the Deputy Chair shall preside as Chair of any general meeting, but if the Chair and the Deputy Chair are not present or being present are both unwilling to act at the time appointed for holding such meeting, the persons present and entitled to vote at a general meeting may choose one of their number to be Chair of the meeting.

In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, and, if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 15 minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.

10.6. The Chair of a general meeting may with the consent of the meeting adjourn the same from time to time and place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

10.7. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on the show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded either by the Chair or by at least 3 Members present in person or by proxy.

10.9. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

10.10. If a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken in such manner or either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the Chair directs and the result of the poll shall be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded, but a poll demanded on the election of a chair or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith.

10.11. For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby provided that the majority required for the passage of an ordinary resolution requires a simple majority to pass (i.e. more than 50%) and that a tied vote means that the resolution is lost.
10.12. At any meeting, a declaration by the Chair that a resolution has been passed or lost, having regard to the majority required, and an entry to that effect in the book to be kept of the proceedings of the Council, signed by the Chair of that or the next succeeding meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

10.13. At any general meeting a Member or Affiliate Member may vote in person or by proxy, attorney or Representative.

10.14. On a show of hands, the Membership or their Representative present shall each have one vote.

10.15. On a poll, the Membership present in person or by proxy or attorney or other duly authorized Representative shall be entitled to cast on their own behalf a number of votes and a number of votes they represent by proxy, attorney or otherwise in accordance with the voting entitlements for each Category of Member or as from time to time prescribed in the By-laws.

10.16. No objection shall be raised to the qualifications of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chair of the meeting whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

10.17. If any general meeting shall be adjourned for more than 21 days, a notice of such adjourned meeting shall be given to all the Members in the same manner as notice was or ought to have been given of the original meeting.

10.18. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney so authorised. A proxy must be a Member, Affiliate Member, Corporate Member Life Member or Board Appointed Director.

10.19. The instrument appointing a proxy must be deposited at the Office not less than 48 hours prior to the time for holding the general meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy proposes to vote. The appointment of a proxy for a general meeting shall apply, unless revoked by the Member or Affiliate Member, to any adjournment of that general meeting.

10.20. An instrument appointing a proxy may be in the usual form or any other form approved by the Board from time to time.

10.21. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.

10.22. For the purposes of securing the widest participation of activities of the Council and the carrying out of its objects, the Board may from time to time invite representatives of any association, organisation, group, university or college or any branch thereof, Department of Government, (either Federal, State or Municipal) or any other person to attend a general meeting.

10.23. Any such representative or person so invited under the preceding sub-clause shall have the right to attend that general meeting and, with the consent of the Chair of the meeting, may take part in all discussions there at but shall not be entitled to vote.
