

ACPET Professional Development

Webinars that will improve the quality and ethics of your organisation's practice

Ethics & quality in education

Dylan Wolfram
1800 657 644
pd@acpet.edu.au
www.acpet.edu.au

ACPET members strive to promote quality and ethics within their organisational practices. To help build on the educational sectors of quality and ethics ACPET has developed these webinars. They are pre-recorded to be viewed at at your convenience.

Compliance

- Quality education related webinars
- Quality in training – the quality webinar series
- Quality in assessments – the quality webinar series
- Quality engagement with stakeholders – the quality webinar series
- Quality for students – the quality webinar series
- Volume of learning and amount of training – introduction
- Elements of a quality training and assessment system
- Techniques to help you successfully map your assessments
- Validating training and assessment with industry
- Improve your quality and compliance by addressing the top five ASQA non-compliances
- Good practice in transition management and teach out
- Strategies for increasing student participation and completion rates
- Credit transfer – a step-by-step guide for good practice
- Empowering assessors in conducting RPL
- RPL – getting it right
- Complaint handling for international students presented by the Overseas Student Ombudsman
- Creating assessments webinar series (3 part webinar series)
- Clustering units for delivery and assessment
- Validation – requirements and how to meet them
- Validation – an introduction for complete beginners
- Getting industry engagement right – a blueprint for success

Marketing related webinars

- ACPET's Code of Ethics and Code of Practice
- Implementing responsible good practice in engaging education agents
- Educational brokers – the good, the bad and the ugly
- Conversation with the CEO – Education Brokers with Rod Camm
- Online advertising – Dos, Don't and How-tos
- Using social media ethically and effectively in your training institution

Student services related webinars

- How to embed LLN testing into your RTO's practice
- Integrate numeracy support into your vocational practice
- Supporting students with a disability by creating an inclusive learning environment
- Building confidence in enrolling students with a disability
- Autism spectrum basics
- How to support students with a hearing loss and deafness
- Addressing stress, anxiety and mental health among learns and staff through mindfulness
- Meeting the requirements for issuing AQF qualifications and statements of attainments
- Supporting EAL and ELICOS students
- Supporting international students