Established in Brisbane in 1982, CATC Design School (previously known as Commercial Arts Training College), is now one of Australia's largest private vocational design schools, with campuses in Brisbane the Gold Coast, Sydney and Melbourne. CATC delivers Diploma level qualifications in Graphic Design, Interior Design and Photography. In Queensland campuses are located in the cultural hub of the Fortitude Valley and the Gold Coast's Southport.

The one year Diploma of Graphic Design is a hands-on course that gives students an appreciation of what makes good design. Students learn to analyse briefs and visualise concepts, explore typography, layout.

digital design, packaging design, illustration, advertising communication, branding and individual portfolio preparation. Students also gain extensive skills across a variety of design programs including Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator and Indesign.

Upon completion of the course graduates can also choose to enter the workforce, or articulate into the second year of Billy Blue College of Design's Bachelor of Applied Design.
