I'm talking about opportunity through Diversity. resources, opportunities, they can take action and training activities that connect them. They can also influence decisions affecting their from diversity?

Expanded and improved learning services is good for business.

TS/TRAINNEES > from diversity sounds

THE WORKFORCE & COMM...
The first intake of children at Yeates School for the Deaf at Yeates opened, 1957.
a mix of special education (the first stream of learning (with occasional support etc.)

Inns: an Arts Degree, Social Work and a PhD in Creative Writing by writing...

social policy, disability, health and the UK. . . . And now ACPET inted in 2008 to provide ional development for pri ion and access to resour
s and collaborative arra
the private, public and co
and training sectors.
CPET delivers opportunity through diversity . . .
as guest speakers

Introduction of ‘The Creativity

Column: disability in the classroom place. A guide for private ations

column in NMU (‘this with ations with national an ET’s Social Inclusion Policy >>> ET’s Code of Eth (Section 6) ion Strategy and Occasional

ities of Practice

ence training for commi

ity and Response
dvelopment
Evidently, a different sort of silence than that of ears; not the silence of hearing loss but the silence of unspoken stories. I had contributed to that silence. ... not of sorts ...

I remember, and certainly for all of my adult life, I was ‘a deaf person.’ . . . Some of my early silence about my deafness came from my desire not to shine the torch on myself by what I did not have, that I thought that if I lived my life as fully as possible, then my success in blending in would mean I was not going to attract attention, I wanted it to be on the
WHAT CAN YOU DO TO CREATE OPPORTUNITIES THROUGH DIVERSITY?