

Media Release

Wednesday 22nd July 2015

ACPET 2015 Conference

Australian Council for Private Education and Training (ACPET) is hosting a National Conference and Asia Pacific International Education Forum (APIEF) from the 26-28 August at Albert Park, Melbourne.

Hosting the most impressive speakers from the domestic and global education sector, ACPET's 2015 conference will explore industry benchmarks, practices and innovative ideas.

Featured speakers, Hon Christopher Pyne the Minister for Education and Training and Rachel Botsman the Collaborative Economy Global Expert, will lead discussions on myths and realities of Tertiary Education, which will draw on crowd's opinions and impute.

ACPET CEO Rod Camm who will be in attendance at the event said "The opportunity for thought provoking discussion, collaboration and networking with peers at this time in the Education sector is vital".

"ACPET members will also have the opportunity to have input into company key policies and positioning which will be an invaluable discussion as we look to revisit and strengthen our Code of Ethics and Code of Practice," he said.

For registration details head to www.acpet2015.com.au

ENDS

For further information contact

Bess Brennan
Marketing & Communications Coordinator
Bess.brennan@acpet.edu.au
0481 358 471